now for my reasons for sending you to wicklow first for your own sake if you stay in town or in any place where excitement can be obtained by any means you will be in swift s hospital in a week you must live in the country under the eye of one upon whom i can depend and you must have something to do to keep you out of mischief and away from your music and painting and poetry which sir john richard writes to me are dangerous for you in your present morbid state second because i can entrust you with a task which in the hands of a sensible man might bring discredit on the church in short i want you to investigate a miracle my dear uncle the miracle is genuine i have affected perfect credulity in order to throw the hickies and countryfolk off their guard with me i have listened to their method of convincing the sceptical strangers i have examined the ordnance maps and cross examined the neighboring protestant gentlefolk i have spent a day upon the ground on each side of the water and have visited it at midnight i have considered the upheaval theories subsidence theories volcanic theories and tidal wave theories which the provincial savants have suggested it was now past two o clock and the dawn had begun so that i had no further trouble for want of light i wheeled the coffin to a patch of loamy soil which i had noticed in the afternoon near the grave of the holy sisters i had warmed to my work my neck no longer pained me and i began to dig vigorously soon making a shallow trench deep enough to hide the coffin with the addition of a mound
