nobel laureate toni morrison s novels have almost exclusively been examined as sagas illuminating history race culture and gender politics this gathering of eight essays by top scholars probes morrison s novels and her growing body of nonfiction and critical work for the complex and potent aesthetic elements that have made her a major american novelist of the twentieth century through traditional aesthetic concepts such as the sublime the beautiful and the grotesque through issues of form narrative and language and through questions of affect and reader response the nine essays in this volume bring into relief the dynamic and often overlooked range within morrison s writing employing aesthetic ideas that range from the ancient greeks to contemporary research in the black english oral tradition the aesthetics of toni morrison shows the potency of these ideas for interpreting morrison s writing this is a force morrison herself has often suggested in her claims that greek tragedy bears a striking similarity to afro american communal structures at the same time each essay attends to the ways in which morrison also challenges traditional aesthetic concepts establishing the african american and female voices that are essential to her sensibility the result is a series of readings that simultaneously expands our understanding of morrison s work and also provokes new thinking about an aesthetic tradition that is nearly 2 500 years old these essays offer a rich complement to the dominant approaches in morrison scholarship by revealing aspects of her work that purely ideological approaches have obscured or about which they have remained oddly silent each essay focuses particularly on the relations between the aesthetic and the ethical in morrison s writing and between the artistic production and its role in the world at large these relations show the rich political implications that aesthetic analysis engenders by treating both morrison s fiction and her nonfiction the essays reveal a mind and imagination that have long been intimately engaged with the questions and traditions of the aesthetic domain the result is a provocative and original contribution to morrison scholarship and to scholarship in american letters generally newness of life is a compilation of 101 meditations of the heart the content is biblical and the language is simple these reflections are based on scripture passages that were originally written during the lockdown year 2020 through 2021 in random order 365 in all they were arranged thematically later it was never meant to be published since it is a part of a personal prayer journal that the author later decided to share with others some of the topics include repentance holiness faith divine healing salvation praise and god s eternal word the christian walk is not just terribly difficult a path so rocky that many fall by the wayside but it is downright impossible to achieve in our human strength it is however simple and full of joy when we partner with the helper the holy spirit who abides in us the purpose of this book therefore is to address some of the doubts that haunt us and the lies of this world that cling to us from our past life it is the truth alone that sets us free and enables us to live as jesus taught us so newness of life is intended to encourage the christian to walk by faith and not by sight on the narrow path and in the victorious new life that we have in christ jesus
