- Understanding the Context of the Great Depression The Historical Background The Great Depression, which began in 1929 and extended through the 1930s, was a defining epoch in modern history. Originating in the United States following the stock market crash known as Black Tuesday, the economic downturn rapidly spread worldwide, affecting virtually every nation regardless of size or wealth. This period was marked by unprecedented unemployment, deflation, banking failures, and a severe contraction of international trade. The interconnectedness of global economies meant that what started as a domestic crisis quickly became a global phenomenon. - Overproduction and Underconsumption: Industries and farms produced more than could be sold, leading to falling prices and layoffs.
- International Economic Policies: Tariffs like the Smoot-Hawley Tariff exacerbated global trade tensions.
