muslim enlightened thought in south asia is an engaging history of the enlightened liberality of modern muslim poets philosophers educationists novelists historians artists and public intellectuals who drew on a long muslim intellectual tradition beyond the western liberalism of empire interpreting the pathbreaking contributions of an array of creative muslim figures the book challenges the view portraying them as exemplars of an insular and defensive apologetic modernity it highlights a strand of muslim thought and liberality of mind that has been ignored by scholars obsessed with dire and dour theologians this book questions both the presumptions of historians of liberalism that exclude muslims from the domain of modern liberal thought and the predilections of those scholars of islam who lean solely on discovering theological rigidity among ulama it analyzes the forces that have contributed to the narrowing of intellectual space since the late twentieth century and the resilience of expansive and enlightened ideas that have kept candles flickering in the enveloping darkness foregrounding the enlightened conceptions of ghalib sayyid ahmad khan iqbal and sadequain on faith selfhood history and time and bringing other muslim thinkers out of the shadows the book offers a nuanced reformulation of the meaning of religion for our challenging times it will be of interest to a wide readership interested in the history of islam and south asia with this pioneering project margrit perna brings the history of emotions approach to south asian studies a theoretically sophisticated and erudite investigation emotions and modernity in colonial india maps the history of emotions in india between the uprising of 1857 and world war i situating the prevalent experiences interpretations and practices of emotions of the time within the context of the major political events of colonial india perna goes beyond the dominant narrative of colonial modernity and its fixation with discipline and restraint and traces the contemporary transformation from a balance in emotions to the resurgence of fervor the current volume is based on a large archive of sources in urdu many being explored for the first time perna grounds her work on such diverse sources as philosophical and theological treatises on questions of morality advice literature journals and newspapers nostalgic descriptions of courtly culture and even children s literature this close look into individual experiences practices and interpretations reveals the myriad emotions of the day and the importance of these micro histories in presenting an alternative account of colonial india
