is not this the carpenter s son matthew 13 55 what a remarkable fact in the history of jesus does this question asked with mingled surprise and contempt betray it presents him in a point of light in which perhaps few have paused to study him and yet than which there is scarcely another more real and instructive it invites us to consider jesus as the son of man as the son of a carpenter and in all probability until he began to be about thirty years of age assisting joseph in his humble calling hence it was asked concerning jesus is not this the carpenter how truly did the son of god identify himself with the humanity and the curse he came to ransom and remove and when we see those hands which built the universe building earthly dwellings for man squaring the beam plying the saw thrusting the plane driving the nail constructing and raising the framework we behold personally him tasting the bitterness of that part of the curse which enjoined in the sweat of your face shall you eat bread totally awesome and mind blowing it is when we think about the fact that the one who loves us knows everything about us the good the bad and the sometimes very very ugly how do he know because the one who loves us in a way that no one else ever has claims to be god himself and there is more not only does he love us unconditionally jesus made this declaration my purpose is to give them a rich and satisfying life he offers to us forgiveness peace purpose joy meaning safety significance direction in life and so much more then think of the fact that not only do we have the offer of life here and now we also have the promise of heaven when we die we also need to think about the fact that the bible teaches us that jesus is the only way we can get to heaven acts 4 12 there is salvation in no one else god has given no other name under heaven by which we must be saved if that is true and remembering that the bible says believing in jesus is a life and death matter for the wages of sin is death but the free gift of god is eternal life through christ jesus our lord romans 6 23 does it not make sense to take some time to think for yourself about who jesus is and what he has done for you this is your invitation to take a few minutes every day for a week to consider jesus so make yourself comfortable sit down in a quiet place and spend a few minutes thinking about jesus
