the malankara mar thoma syrian church exists as a hybrid church by blending the eastern liturgical elements of the oriental orthodox church and the evangelical ideas of the protestant reformation of the sixteenth century this church is a bridging church connecting protestantism and oriental orthodoxy the reformation in the malankara church 1836 instigated a new impetus for this church in constructing an ecclesial identity and pattern of mission a major missiological imperative employed by cms missionaries in india was solely centered on the scripture against this popular understanding the mar thoma church through its reformation process showed that liturgy can also be an imperative for mission the translation and revision of the eucharistic liturgy is the basic visible expression of reformation in the malankara church hence this book explicitly places how the eucharistic liturgy of the mar thoma church is observed as the foundation for mission in its course of growth in order to accomplish this objective the writer has examined the historical evolution and the developmental process of the eucharistic liturgy of the church which is a revised version of the liturgy of st james in a nutshell this study is an appraisal of various missiological themes reflected in the eucharistic liturgy of the church this study throws ample light on how the mar thoma church integrated liturgy and evangelism in its course of development the writer systematically illustrates how the church made a serious effort to bring missional themes employed in the liturgy into the practical realm by its ancillary organizations convention gatherings and sociocharitable works this volume asserts that an emphasis on eucharist centred ecclesiology guides and motivates the church to enliven a mission oriented life which is crucial for accomplishing a relevant mission historical account and significance of the liturgy of the mar thoma syrian church this volume is about the most mind boggling sacrament of the christian faith also referred to as the sacrament of the altar the eucharist in its roman catholic interpretation the conversion of the substance of the bread and wine into the body and blood of christ for holy communion the challenge of providing a rational interpretation of this doctrine of faith proved to be one of the most contentious issues in the western history of ideas apparently going against self evident metaphysical principles requiring accidents existing without a substance and a body in several places at the same time etc and dividing schools of thought indeed eventually warring religious factions the volume addresses both the metaphysical theoretical issues involved in this challenge and the historical theological developments of how meeting this challenge played out first in the schools and even later in religious schisms leading to the paradigmatic shift from medieval to modern forms of thought the essays of the volume derive from the lectures of an eponymous international conference held in budapest hungary which was also the occasion of founding the society for the history of european ideas sehi accordingly the book is the first volume of the annual proceedings of the sehi this book is aimed just as much at laymen and religious scholars seeking a better understanding of their faith as at anyone seeking this understanding with a non religious attitude this book exposes the profound impact american evangelicalism is having on the religious lives of contemporary christian immigrants and the pressures immigrant churches face to incorporate evangelical worship styles often at the expense of maintaining their ethnic character and support systems most interestingly it shows that the integration patterns of post 1965 christian immigrants and their descendants have essentially reversed earlier models while immigrants from europe and their children were expected to shed their ethnic identities to become americans in the sphere of religion they could maintain their ethnic traditions within american denominations this book shows that members of the contemporary second generation are incorporating into u s society by maintaining their ethnic identities in secular contexts but are adopting a de ethnicized religious identity and practice in particular many are gravitating toward evangelical megachurches drawing on multi site research in the u s and india this book also provides a global perspective on religion demonstrating the variety of ways in which transnational processes affect religious organizations and their members and how forces of globalization from the period of colonialism to contemporary out migration have brought tremendous changes among christian communities in the global south book jacket
