Darcy is more deeply in love with his wife than ever as the golden summer draws to a close and the Darceys look ahead to the end of their first year of marriage. Mr Darcy could never have imagined his love could grow even deeper with the passage of time. Lizzy is full of surprises. Elizabeth is unpredictable and lively, pulling Darcy out of his stern and serious demeanor with her teasing and temptation. Looking ahead and planning for celebrations and life events, large and small, Lizzy can still catch Darcy unawares when he least expects it. But surprising events force the Darceys to weather absence and illness and to discover whether they can find a way to build a bond of everlasting love and desire.

What happens when you put together Jane Austen, Drew Barrymore, a writer from Boston, and the old-fashioned art of letter writing? It's a fun recipe where you get to eavesdrop on every refreshing, creative thought provoking and at times unusual line, and you will never look at things the same way again. If you are a Jane Austen fan, a Drew Barrymore fan, or even a fan of bringing back the old-fashioned art of letter writing, then you will enjoy this fun tale. It's a different portrait of an artist, perhaps even the way Jane Austen was meant to be experienced and extolled. Julie Bonetti is an author and podcaster who lives just outside of Boston, writes, and talks about energy and shares her explorations about energy and relationships.
