explores auschwitz s construction revealing architectural plans and documents that expose the ss s role in orchestrating genocide commemorating 80 years since the liberation of auschwitz birkenau this book tells the story of the camp s construction and its evolution into the largest mass murder factory of all time using hundreds of captured german documents and architectural plans the book is a unique historical source of how the architects came to plan and accomplish the horror we now call auschwitz drawing on key documents from the building office archive this in depth study uses plans letters telegrams worksite labour reports and minutes of meetings it reveals how the ss needed civilian knowledge to install electrical sewage and heating systems and build chimneys and other structures it explains how various outside contractors were involved in cooperating in genocide and shows just how eager they were to produce goods for the ss for financial reward just after the construction had begun on birkenau in 1941 architectural plans were presented to include new crematoria and gas chambers by the summer of 1943 birkenau had been transformed into a murder camp but building and planning to further extend the site continued in november 1944 himmler gave the order to halt and dismantle the extermination facilities to conceal their murderous activities when the red army arrived on 27 january 1945 most of the camp was still intact although the ss had incinerated the camps archives they forgot to destroy the construction archive which was kept in another building as a result the russians found many of the technical drawings including construction blueprints that clearly detailed the extermination facilities with detailed captions and text together with a plethora of rare photographs the book is an important study into those that masterminded the murder of over 1 million people orthodox sisters explores the relationship between women religion and social cultural and economic change between 1700 and 1935 through the experiences of orthodox convents in nizhnii novgorod diocese focusing primarily on the convent of the exaltation of the cross william g wagner places the women s experiences in the broader context of developments in female monasticism and religious life in russia as well as in europe and north america over the same period this is the first comprehensive study that follows a russian convent through all the stages of its life from its origins in the eighteenth century to its flourishing at the turn of the twentieth century to its resistance to soviet assault and finally to its rebirth in the 1920s by the late nineteenth century the convent of the exaltation of the cross and the other convents and women's religious communities in nizhnii novgorod diocese constituted a reimagined form of a traditional orthodox monastic community wagner shows how these nuns and novices adapted to the conditions of emergent modernity in a distinctively orthodox way when almost everything but their communal life work and worship and their sacred spaces had been stripped away and they were subject to the socialist state's efforts at subversion the sisters of the convent of the exaltation of the cross and the other convents in the diocese created an authentic christian community that gave their lives a collective meaning in this way they were able to lead a rewarding life and survive the early years of soviet russia
