the afterlife in popular culture heaven hell and the underworld in the american imagination gives students a fresh look at how americans view the afterlife helping readers understand how it s depicted in popular culture what happens to us when we die the book seeks to explore how that question has been answered in american popular culture it begins with five framing essays that provide historical and intellectual background on ideas about the afterlife in western culture these essays are followed by more than 100 entries each focusing on specific cultural products or authors that feature the afterlife front and center entry topics include novels film television shows plays works of nonfiction graphic novels and more all of which address some aspect of what may await us after our passing this book is unique in marrying a historical overview of the afterlife with detailed analyses of particular cultural products such as films and novels in addition it covers these topics in nonspecialist language written with a student audience in mind the book provides historical context for contemporary depictions of the afterlife addressed in the entries which deal specifically with work produced in the 20th and 21st centuries an exploration into consciousness the universe and the nature of reality draws on transdimensional physics and biology reincarnation and past life memories animal consciousness multiple identities thoughtforms soul pictures and paranormal phenomena like crop circles and poltergeists explores the riddle of personal identity and how it differs from consciousness reveals that consciousness is more than encompassing all that exists it also speaks to what has yet to manifest scientific orthodoxy views the universe as conceived of matter protons neutrons electrons down to the smallest particle quarks but when you keep digging what is beneath quarks the scientific worldview does not take into account consciousness or life itself how did consciousness become part of the material universe is it a by product of brain chemistry or a constituent of reality or to dig deeper which is more fundamental the existence of an objective physical universe or our subjective experience of it in this investigation into consciousness the universe and the nature of reality richard grossinger offers a wide ranging foundation for reimagining the universe as based in consciousness rather than matter he presents in depth analysis of the standard scientific description of the universe revealing the holes in its theories exploring the interpenetration of matter and all reality by consciousness the author looks at reincarnation and past life memories examining famous and lesser known but verifiable accounts he then explores the nature and origin of consciousness with accompanying explorations of animal consciousness the brain as a computer multiple identities thoughtforms soul pictures and paranormal phenomena like ufos faeries and poltergeists he also examines concepts from physics that combine elements of both consciousness and matter such as collapsing waveforms and the uncertainty principle of quantum mechanics examining nonlocal and transpersonal modes of consciousness grossinger looks at the difference between consciousness and personal identity he expands this discussion with reflections on sethian cosmology using seth s own words and jane roberts s and john friedlander s interpretations he reveals that consciousness also encompasses what has yet to manifest and explains why the universe exists at all why there is something rather than nothing skewering the materialist paradigm and placing consciousness alongside mass gravity and heat as an essential component of the universe grossinger proposes that reality is a thoughtform where sentient beings collaborate to bring about a concrete realm vibrating at their own frequency the question is this what do we accept as the truth of what we believe in we take many things by mere faith but is faith the right path in putting our trust in a matter just because someone says so do we dig into a matter with an open mind rather than prejudice and influences from others as we were growing up does our relationship with others influence our perception of what is truth and what is not the truth do we tend to accept something as truth because we don t have time or resources to check it out or is it because of an emphatic speech by a cleric that proclaims the bible is without error when in fact outside sources point to errors in dates events and even interpretation yet we close our eyes and ears because we ask how can this be many times the excuse is made that if so many people believe in a particular biblical statement or condition then it can t be wrong or can it debate on biblical issues end up boggling the general populous and many just walk away from it with disgust won t deal with it or dogmatically hold a position of biblical inerrancy this brings us down to getting into the trenches of discovering the truth as ugly and contentious it may seem this is especially true when ufology is brought into the picture especially when the topic of god or a god is introduced and examined in the light of various scientific disciplines
