this guide highlights the place of translation in our culture encouraging awareness of the process of translating and the choices involved making the translator more visible concentrating on major writers and works it covers translations out of many languages from greek to hungarian korean to turkish for some works e g virgil s aeneid which have been much translated the discussion is historical and critical showing how translation has evolved over the centuries and bringing out the differences between versions elsewhere with less familiar literatures the guide examines the extent to which translation has done justice to the range of work available this book serves as an accessible and reliable survey for students wishing to gain familiarity with the basic ideas of buddhist philosophical and religious thought and with some of the recent research in the field it guides readers towards a richer understanding of the central concepts of classical indian buddhist thought from the time of buddha to the latest scholarly perspectives and controversies abstract and complex ideas are made understandable by the authors clear and engaging style the second edition has been fully revised in light of new scholarship in particular on mahāyāna buddhism and tantric buddhism an often neglected and inadequately understood topic as well as a detailed bibliography this authoritative resource now includes recommended further reading study questions a pronunciation guide and extensive glossary of terms all aimed at helping students to develop their knowledge and appreciation of buddhist thought virginia burrus explores one of the strongest and most disturbing aspects of the christian tradition its excessive preoccupation with shame while christianity has frequently been implicated in the conversion of ancient mediterranean cultures from shame to guilt based and thus in the emergence of the modern west s emphasis on guilt burrus seeks to recuperate the importance of shame for christian culture focusing on late antiquity she explores a range of fascinating phenomena from the flamboyant performances of martyrs to the imagined abjection of christ from the self humiliating disciplines of ascetics to the intimate disclosures of augustine burrus argues that christianity innovated less by replacing shame with guilt than by embracing shame indeed the ancient christians sacrificed honor but laid claim to their own shame with great energy at once intensifying and transforming it public spectacles of martyrdom became the most visible means through which vulnerability to shame was converted into a defiant witness of identity this was also where the sacrificial death of the self exemplified by christ s crucifixion was most explicitly appropriated by his followers shame showed a more private face as well as burrus demonstrates the ambivalent lure of fleshly corruptibility was explored in the theological imaginary of incarnational christology it was further embodied in the transgressive disciplines of saints who plumbed the depths of humiliation eventually with the advent of literary and monastic confessional practices the shame of sin s inexhaustibility made itself heard in the revelations of testimonial discourse in conversation with an eclectic constellation of theorists burrus interweaves her historical argument with theological psychological and ethical reflections she proposes finally that early christian texts may have much to teach us about the secrets of shame that lie at the heart of our capacity for humility courage and transformative love in fourteenth and fifteenth century tibet there was great ferment about what makes enlightenment possible since systems of self liberation must show what factors pre exist in the mind that allow for transformation into a state of freedom from suffering this controversy about the nature of mind which persists to the present day raises many questions this book first presents the final exposition of special insight by tsong kha pa the founder of the ge luk pa order of tibetan buddhism in his medium length exposition of the stages of the path as well as the sections on the object of negation and on the two truths in his illumination of the thought extensive explanation of chandrakirti s supplement to nagarjuna s treatise on the middle it then details the views of his predecessor dol po pa shay rap gyel tsen the seminal author of philosophical treatises of the jo nang pa order as found in his mountain doctrine followed by an analysis of tsong kha pa s reactions by contrasting the two systems dol po pa s doctrine of other emptiness and tsong kha pa s doctrine of self emptiness both views emerge more clearly contributing to a fuller picture of reality as viewed in tibetan buddhism tsong kha pa s final exposition of wisdom brilliantly explicates ignorance and wisdom explains the relationship between dependent arising and emptiness shows how to meditate on emptiness and explains what it means to view phenomena as like illusions originally published in 1927 this volume includes an economic history of rome from the origins to the empire with four illustrations and six maps it is the fourth volume to appear in a section on ancient rome a period of nearly 1200 years is covered tracing the economic life of rome from the age of primitive industry and pastoral life to the organised labour and complex civilisation of the late empire the economic aspect of roman history neglected though it has been is in truth the basis of its political diplomatic and military history this edited volume aims to advance a muslim centered perspective on the study of islam in europe to do so it brings together a range of case studies that illustrate how european muslims engaged with their sacred scripture while being part of a christian dominated social and political space the research presented in this volume seeks to analyse muslims practices of translating interpreting and using the qur an as a sacred object and thus pursues three main research agendas part i focuses on the issues of muslim christian relations in europe and studies how these relations have engendered discursive connections between muslim and christian produced texts related to the study and interpretation of the qur an part ii aims to bring scholarly attention to the under represented cases of muslim communities in europe this part introduces new research on polish belarusian daghestani bosnian and kazan tatars and examines local traditions of producing vernacular qur ans and commodification of qur anic manuscripts the final section of the volume part iii contributes to filling in the gaps related to the theoretical and conceptual framing of muslim translation activities the history of religious thought and practice in european history is in many ways still uncharted territory this book aims to contribute to a better understanding of the cultural history of the qur an and muslim agency in interpreting transmitting and translating the sacred scripture this commentary on guhyasamaja tantra is the seminal guide to deity yoga and tantric visualization for the geluk school of tibetan buddhism ocean of attainments was composed by khedrup jé gelek palsang 1385 1438 one of tsongkhapa losang drakpa s most prominent disciples its subject is the creation stage a quintessential buddhist tantric meditation that together with the completion stage comprises the path of unexcelled tantra the guhyasamaja tantra referred to as the king of all tantras is revered in tibet especially by the geluk school for its hermeneutic methods which are in turn applied to other tantras in the creation stage meditators visualize themselves as buddhas at the center of the celestial mandala surrounded in all directions by male and female bodhisattvas and enlightened beings since the core of the practice is visualization this meditation perhaps more than other meditations presumes the creative power of the mind visualizations form the basis not only of the creation stage and deity yoga but of all tantric practices and rituals since tantric practice takes place not in mundane existence but in the illusion like purity of the enlightened view while the previously published essence of the ocean of attainments is a concise exposition on the practice of the guhyasamaja sadhana ocean of attainments is much more detailed providing extensive scriptural citations clear explanation of the body mandala arguments on points of contention reference to other tantric systems and critiques of misinterpretations complemented by the extensive and clear introduction this volume is a vital contribution to the growing body of scholarship on guhyasamaja and on buddhist tantra in general toward the beginning of 2013 i received reports of passages in the black notebooks that offered observations on jewry or as the case may be world jewry it immediately became clear to me that the publication of the black notebooks would call forth a wide spread international debate already in the spring of 2013 i had asked professor friedrich wilhelm von herrmann last private assistant and in the words of my grandfather the chief co worker of the complete edition if he might review the notebooks as a whole based on his profound insight into the thought of martin heidegger and in particular review those jewish related passages that were the focus of the public eye publications about the black notebooks quickly came to propagate catchy expressions such as being historical anti semitism and metaphysical anti semitism the first question that obviously arises is does the thought of martin heidegger exhibit any kind of anti semitism at all in this book professor von herrmann now advances his hermeneutic explication with professor francesco alfieri of the pontificia università lateranense he has found a colleague who has drawn up a comprehensive philological analysis of volumes ga 94 through ga 97 of the complete edition the fact that heidegger designated the hitherto published black notebooks as ponderings Überlegungen and as observations anmerkungen has been given little consideration he intentionally placed them at the conclusion of the complete edition because without acquaintance with the lectures and above all with the being historical treatises that would come to be published in the framework of the complete edition they would not be comprehensible arnulf heidegger a compilation of apocryphal christian texts many translated into english for the first time with comprehensive introductions this second volume of new testament apocrypha continues the work of the first by making available to english readers more apocryphal texts twenty nine texts are featured including the adoration of the magi and the life of mary magdalene each carefully introduced copiously annotated and translated into english by eminent scholars these fascinating texts provide insights into the beliefs expressions and practices of a range of christian communities from the early centuries through late antiquity and into the medieval period dudjom rinpoche was one of the seminal figures in tibetan buddhism in the twentieth century yet very few of his religious writings have been translated into english this volume contains a generous selection of his inspiring teachings and writings the core of which is a lengthy discussion of the entire path of dzogchen including key instructions on view meditation and conduct along with direct advice on how to bring one s experiences onto the path also included in this book in their entirety are the oral instructions tantric songs and songs of realization from his holiness s collected works along with a generous selection of the aspiration and supplication prayers more than any other topic prophecy represents the point at which the divine meets the human the absolute meets the relative how can a human being attain the word of god in what manner does god when conceived as eternal and transcendent address corporeal transitory creatures what happens to god s divine truth when it is beheld by minds limited in their power to apprehend and influenced by the intellectual currents of their time and place how were these issues viewed by the great jewish philosophers of the past who took the divine communication and all it entails seriously while at the same time desired to understand it as much as humanly possible in the course of dealing with a myriad of other issues that occupied their attention this book offers an in depth study of prophecy in the thought of seven of the leading medieval jewish philosophers r saadiah gaon r judah halevi maimonides gersonides r hasdai crescas r joseph albo and baruch spinoza it attempts to capture the original voice of these thinkers by looking at the intellectual milieus in which they developed their philosophies and by carefully analyzing their views in their textual contexts it also deals with the relation between the earlier approaches and the later ones overall this book presents a significant model for narrating the history of an idea an investigation of the multiple meanings and functions of sacrifice in diverse religious texts and practices from the late hellenistic and roman imperial periods
