travancore state manual was written in the closing years of the 1800s it is a fascinating book in that the perspective of historical events that took place in the region known as the indian peninsula is markedly different from what is being taught in current day schools and colleges there is need to bring this book out in a very readable form that is what has been attempted here ved from victoria institutions has written a commentary which aims to elucidate the various differences in perspective and also tries to focus on varying issues which are nowadays hidden away from public knowledge what ultimately comes out as background of unvarying strength is the fact that the english rule especially that by the english east india company was really of benign qualities towards the common man of this area this book contains the story of an independent kingdom at the southern most end of the south asian peninsula which lost its independence in 1947 in the wake of a fool coming to power in england this book chronicles the development of eco criticism in malayalam literature in the context of three well known novels viz nellu marakappile theyyangal and aathi until the last decade of the previous century ecological concerns were unknown to the society in general malayalam literary world was largely preoccupied with its own overemphasized themes but with much concentration on infrastructure development and the unprecedented development of the service sector the inevitable conflict between nature and culture between the common people and development managers became the order of the day in the mid 1980s and early 90s there has been a substantial growth in environmental literary studies this book examines the shift happened in literature from its preoccupation with the human in nature to a concern for the nonhuman nature with full acknowledgement of the influence of earlier eco critical texts published in the language this book seeks to study in detail how the above mentioned novels can be called in as prototypical of a new sensibility that has just made its presence felt in malayalam literary scenario literary eco criticisms of which these novels are proper representations depicts the struggles undertaken by the people for their right to land water and air and at the same time engender resistance movements elsewhere such a study needs to be historically located within the large compass of literature eco criticism is motivated by environmental praxis in as much it seeks literary representations of physical nature
