the extreme complexity of sirach's text at times makes it almost impossible to come to one clear conclusion as regards certain issues there are numerous differences between various translations of this deuterocanonical text in addition the armenian translation being a textual witness to not one but multiple parent texts has its own complications this research provides a sustained theological reading of the armenian text of sirach on the basis of yakob nalean's commentary written in the 18th century at the same time it places a great emphasis on the textual evaluation of the various versions of sirach in armenian in this respect an attempt has been made to display the unique features of the armenian sirach within the wider scope of the scholarship of this biblical text through a comprehensive linguistic and theological analysis of some major parts of sirach in armenian this study assesses the extent to which this book was in use amongst armenians throughout the centuries in particular the numerous references to sirach in both armenian and non armenian patristic literature are examined with the aim of dating the first translations into armenian and tracing the development of the text in the armenian medieval schools yahweh the lord god and his son yahshuah jesus christ made statements with regard to eschatology that have been spiritualized for over a millennium which has led to the belief in universalism the belief that yahshuah died for everyone well after one studies the original languages of the hebrew aramaic and greek the message of the kingdom of god was preached to and accepted by a certain house in the bible the other house rejected this message and yahshuah punished that house by taking the kingdom away from them and giving it to another nation bringing forth fruit there are only the house of israel the house of judah and the house of david mentioned in the bible all three existed then as they do today however most of today's babylonian priesthood churchianity refuses to accept the secular historical position with regard to the house of israel and who they are today the people groups which yahweh and yahshuah addressed still exist today however these people are all mixed up and known by different names but they do exist this book goes back to the origin of these people groups in the bible and brings them forward to the present using their old names in order to understand eschatology this brings us to the major question of is the bible only about israel and if so how does it affect our eschatology today this book answers

biblical manuscripts from the dead sea and the cairo genizah have added immeasurably to our knowledge of the textual history of the hebrew bible the papers collected in this volume compare the evidence of the biblical dss with manuscripts from the vienna papyrus collection connected with the cairo genizah as well as late ancient evidence from diverse contexts the resulting picture is one of a dialectic between textual plurality and fixity the eventual dominance of the consonantal masoretic text over the textual plurality of the second temple period and the secondary diversification of that standardized text through scribal activity in recent history men from a variety of backgrounds have come to the same conclusion that the bible is about israel only for example in 1861 john mason neale translated an ancient twelfth century latin hymn and its title was o come o come emmanuel ever since 1861 christians have sung that hymn at christmas time especially at advent do you know what the words really mean that you are singing in 1878 edward hine wrote an article titled seven eighths of the bible misunderstood wherein he explains that seven eighths of the bible is about national salvation i e the national salvation of true israel whereas only one eighth of the bible is about personal salvation did you know that in the 1960 s pastor sheldon emry wrote an article title an open letter to any minister who teaches the jews are israel wherein he is of the opinion that the israel that exists today since 1948 is not the true israel of the bible in 1998 arnold e kennedy wrote a book titled the exclusiveness of israel wherein he legally proves using the king james version of the bible that the bible in general is only about true israel so here we are in the twenty first century and the gospel that is preached today is totally convoluted from that which was preached in the first century a d by yahshuah and his disciples i e the gospel of the kingdom so where did the so called churches and pastors go wrong by the way is there really a hierarchy in the bible in order to find out what the truth really is we have to look at the original languages in which the bible was written and then translated for example the old testament was written in hebrew and aramaic then translated into greek the new testament was written in hebrew and greek both testaments were put together and translated into latin then german and finally into english from which the entire world received their own translation of the bible so what was the original meaning of the words used in the original languages i e the etymology of the words once that is determined then we can go onto the next phase and discuss types in the bible from there what is the law of first mention how should bible prophecy be interpreted who are the keys to bible prophecy where are we in the bible prophecy timeline during these discussions we will find out who yahweh chose of all the families of the earth to make his own the churches teach universalism the question then becomes who was yahweh s law given to what are the laws of yahweh and then the even bigger question becomes who was yahshuah sent to all of these questions and more will be answered as you read this book the author has a fascination with god his belief stems from an earlier study of science and logic concluding that a transcendent infinite entity is the most probable cause of our existence the same study convinced him that god is one and that he should ignore polytheistic religions in his search for understanding a study of the quran revealed it to be a mixture of jewish christian and pagan beliefs and thus unlikely to be an authentic depiction of god a deeper study of christian history the contradictions and implausible narratives in the new testament and the old testament variances from the earlier hebrew scriptures convinced him to walk away from the christianity of his earlier years all this he has written about in his previously published works now he had but one choice to understand what judaism has to say about god for this he sought the opinions of earlier jewish scholars maimonides rabbi ibn ezra hasdai crescas and others and more modern commentators hirsch kook and most especially rabbi nathan lopes cardozo in the title of whose book jewish law in rebellion he found a kindred spirit echoing his own rebellion against religions in general he considers religions to be too complacent believing that they already know the god whom the jews describe as ein sof the infinite and unknowable god the author contends that cannot truly know god agreeing with maimonides that we can only describe god in terms of what he is not thus his search continues believing that god knows the fallibility of the mankind he created and likely prefers that we seek without finding rather than in turn accept vicariously the perceptions of others who have not sought for themselves indoctrination has its dangers whether in ideology politics or religion is there evidence for the existence of god defined as the transcendent entity responsible for all material existence the author believes that there is albeit such evidence is not necessarily proof for everyone in this two part study wayne talbot firstly presents the evidence that has convinced him that god is the most plausible explanation with a limited but sufficient understanding of the nature of existence in terms of energy matter space and time he demonstrates his primary axiom that nothing can explain itself the natural corollary of this is that scientists will never be able to explain the origins of material existence by examining the material itself an explanation of origins must always lie outside the entity being examined this is why scientists cannot explain the origin of the proposed singularity and why some scientists seek an alternative to the big bang model of our universe even resorting to logical absurdities such as the universe creating itself out of nothing while in the presence of something with the reality of god being his presupposition for what follows the author examines the case for monotheistic religions versus polytheistic concluding that the latter are antithetical to a god who is one left with a choice between judaism christianity and islam he concludes that if god has communicated his guidance for living to any it is most likely judaism as recorded in the hebrew scriptures the question becomes which parts of those scriptures were intended for the children of israel alone and which were for all people for all time researching ever deeper he reveals what he has come to believe about how god wants us to relate to him and the specific guidance that should be reworded for contemporary times the spirit of torah is so much more than the mere words for centuries christian theology has inherited interpretations that miss the pulse of the apostolic witness among the most misunderstood is pauline huiothesía commonly translated as adoption in this bold and provocative work the author challenges that rendering unveiling instead a vision of mature sonship huio ship rooted in pauline spirituality existential authenticity and pneumatic transformation drawing on biblical exegesis historical theology and existential thought this book journeys from the shadows of inherited tradition to the reality of the text itself it is not merely a correction of language but a call to recover the divine logic of salvation for theologians biblical scholars and seekers of truth this is more than a scholarly intervention it is a challenge to inherited theology
