the present volume is a continuation of the series contemporary philosophy as with the earlier volumes in the series the present chronicles purport to give a survey of significant trends in contemporary philosophy the need for such surveys has i believe increased rather than decreased over the years the philosophical scene appears for various reasons more complex than ever before the continuing process of specialization in most branches the increasing contact between philosophers from various cultures the emergence of new schools of thought particularly in philosophical logic and in the philosophy of language and ethics and the increasing attention being paid to the history of philosophy in discussions of contemporary problems are the most important contributing factors surveys of the present kind are a valuable source of knowledge of this complexity the surveys may therefore help to strengthen the socratic element of modern philosophy the intercultural dialogue or kommunikationsgemeinschaft so far eight volumes are published in this series viz philosophy of language and philosophical logic volume 1 philosophy of science volume 2 philosophy of action volume 3 philosophy of mind volume 4 african philosophy volume 5 medieval age philosophy volume 6 1 and volume 6 2 asian philosophy volume 7 and philosophy of latin america volume 8

reading african art s impact on modernism as an international phenomenon the black art renaissance tracks a series of twentieth century engagements with canonical african sculpture by european african american and sub saharan african artists and theorists notwithstanding its occurrence during the benighted colonial period the paris avant garde discovery of african sculpture known then as art nègre or black art eventually came to affect nascent afro modernisms whose artists and critics commandeered visual and rhetorical uses of the same sculptural canon and the same term within this trajectory black art evolved as a framework for asserting control over appropriative practices introduced by europeans and it helped forge alliances by redefining concepts of humanism race and civilization from the fauves and picasso to the harlem renaissance and from the work of south african artist ernest mancoba to the imagery of negritude and the cole de dakar african sculpture s influence proved transcontinental in scope and significance through this extensively researched study joshua i cohen argues that art history s alleged centers and margins must be conceived as interconnected and mutually informing the black art renaissance reveals just how much modern art has owed to african art on a global scale
