this book constitutes the first monograph dedicated to an academic analysis of david bowie s appearances in film through close textual analysis together with production and reception histories bowie s silver screen career is explored in full the book covers performance documentaries such as ziggy stardust and the spiders from mars star vehicles ranging from the eulogised the man who fell to earth to the excoriated just a gigolo plus roles from the horror chic of the hunger and cult fantasy of labyrinth to the valiant high brow baal and vainglorious high budget absolute beginners ending with bowie as bowie in bandslam and others as bowie in velvet goldmine and stardust alongside showing his willingness to experiment and at times fail across a variety of genres this study investigates bowie s performative style that while struggling to accommodate the requirements of cinematic realism fits more harmoniously with alternative production codes and aesthetics more broadly by exploring the commercial socio cultural and ideological significance of bowie on film the book demonstrates how notions of gender sexuality and identity formation plus commodity and cultural capital function and fluctuate in contemporary society agency and imagination in the films of david lynch philosophical perspectives offers a sustained philosophical interpretation of the filmmaker s work in light of classic and contemporary discussions of human agency and the complex relations between our capacity to act and our ability to imagine with the help of the pathological characters that so often leave their unforgettable mark on lynch s films this book reveals several important ways in which human beings fail to achieve fuller embodiments of agency or seek substitute satisfactions in spaces of fantasy in keeping with lynch s penchant for unconventional narrative techniques james d reid and candace r craig explore the possibility scope and limits of the very idea of agency itself and what it might be like to renounce concepts of agency altogether in the interpretation and depiction of human life in a series of interlocking readings of eight feature length films and twin peaks the return that combine suggestive philosophical analysis with close attention to cinematic detail reid and craig make a convincing case for the importance of david lynch s work in the philosophical examination of agency the vagaries of the human imagination and the relevance of film for the philosophy of human action scholars of film studies and philosophy will find this book particularly useful two time academy award winner sir david lean 1908 1991 was one of the most prominent directors of the twentieth century responsible for the classics the bridge on the river kwai 1957 lawrence of arabia 1962 and doctor zhivago 1965 british born lean asserted himself in hollywood as a major filmmaker with his epic storytelling and panoramic visions of history but he started out as a talented film editor and director in great britain as a result he brought an art house mentality to blockbuster films combining elements of biography and film criticism beyond the epic the life and films of david lean uses screenplays and production histories to assess lean s body of work author gene d phillips interviews actors who worked with lean and directors who knew him and their comments reveal new details about the director s life and career phillips also explores lean s lesser studied films such as the passionate friends 1949 hobson s choice 1954 and summertime 1955 the result is an in depth examination of the director in cultural historical and cinematic contexts lean s approach to filmmaking was far different than that of many of his contemporaries he chose his films carefully and as a result directed only sixteen films in a period of more than forty years those films however have become some of the landmarks of motion picture history lean is best known for his epics but phillips also focuses on lean's successful adaptations of famous works of literature including retellings of plays such as Brief Encounter 1945 and novels such as Great Expectations 1946 Oliver Twist 1948 and A Passage to India 1984 from expansive studies of war and strife to some of literature's greatest high comedies and domestic dramas lean imbued all of his films with his unique creative vision few directors can match lean's ability to combine narrative sweep and psychological detail and phillips goes beyond lean's epics to reveal this unifying characteristic in the director's body of work beyond the epic is a vital assessment of a great director's artistic process and his place in the film industry david fincher's Zodiac 2007 written by producer james vanderbilt and adapted from the true crime works of robert gray'smith remains one of the most respected films of the early twenty first century as the second film featuring a serial killer and the first based on fact by fincher Zodiac remains a standout in a varied but stylistically unified career while connected to this genre the film also hybridizes the policier genre and the investigative reporter film and yet scholarship has largely ignored the film this collection is the first book length work of criticism dedicated to the film section one focuses on early influences while the second section analyzes the film's unique treatment of narrative the book closes with a section focusing on game theory data and hegemony the Zodiac's treatment in music and the use of sound in cinema by offering new avenues and continuing a few established ones this book will interest scholars of cinema and true crime along with fans and enthusiasts in these areas boldly signifying the cultural issues of the 1960s and 1970s in groundbreaking pieces such as Grey Gardens Gimme Shelter and Showman filmmakers and brothers david and albert maysles used an approach to documentary film that involved spontaneous observation of naturally occurring events with no rehearsed footage and no preconceived plots their revolutionary work eschewed the authoritative voice over narrator didactic scripts and the traditional problem and solution format used by the majority of their predecessors in the genre and duly influenced subsequent directors in both fiction and nonfiction film their collaboration from 1962 until david's death in 1987 wrought thirteen major works in which the brothers critiqued the concept of celebrity with unglamorous footage of iconic figures explored how commercialism hinders communication and questioned the possibility of seeing anything clearly in a world abounding with both real and constructed images jonathan b vogels outlines how the maysles brothers blended a unique amalgam of direct cinema characteristics a modern humanist aesthetic and a collaborative working process that included other directors and editors looking at the films as both shapers and reflections of american culture he points out that the works offer insights into a wide range of contemporary topics including materialism celebrity modern art and the american family in addition to describing the changes in technology that made direct cinema possible vogels provides careful scene by scene analyses that allow for a consideration of the maysles brothers' films as films a tactic not frequently employed in nonfiction film studies internationally renowned david lynch was america's premier purveyor of the surreal an artist whose work in cinema television and the internet exposed the world to his highly personalised view of society this book examines his oeuvre from the cult surrealism of his debut feature Eraserhead to his last feature Inland Empire considering the themes motifs and stories behind his incredible feature films shorts and internet projects his series Twin Peaks revolutionised tv and expanded the possibilities of what the medium could offer this updated edition includes Twin Peaks: The Return his continuation of the series 25 years after the original had set the world alight in lynch's world the mundane and the fantastical collide often with terrifying consequences it is a place where the abnormal is normal where the respectable becomes sinister where innocence is lost and redemption gained at a terrible price and there's always music in the air from the deserts of a distant world to an ordinary backyard at the breakneck speed of lost highway or the sedate determination of the straight story readers will experience amateur sleuths messiahs giants and little people chanteuses psychopaths cherry pie and damn fine coffee david lynch is your guide to this other world and this is your guide to david lynch
