this extract from the eerdmans commentary on the bible provides prinslo s introduction to and concise commentary on psalms the eerdmans commentary on the bible presents in nontechnical language the best of modern scholarship on each book of the bible including the apocrypha reader friendly commentary complements succinct summaries of each section of the text and will be valuable to scholars students and general readers rather than attempt a verse by verse analysis these volumes work from larger sense units highlighting the place of each passage within the overarching biblical story commentators focus on the genre of each text parable prophetic oracle legal code and so on interpreting within the historical and literary context the volumes also address major issues within each biblical book including the range of possible interpretations and refer readers to the best resources for further discussions the main reason we are here on earth is to give god pleasure revelation 4 11 says thou art worthy o lord to receive glory and honor and power for thou has created all things and for thy pleasure they are and were created the very breath that we breathe belongs to him so we need to give it back to him david says in psalm 34 1 i will bless the lord at all times his praise shall continually be in my mouth and even as an ageing king in psalm 71 he writes my mouth is filled with your praise declaring your splendor all day long i will praise you more and more it is our only opportunity to give him the only food he enjoys praise and worship and this is the only thing you and i would be doing in heaven no winning souls no helping poor etc so we may as well start now and if we don t give him our praise god says that he would get the rocks to do it how shameful we who have his breath but why is praising god so difficult simply put praise does not come naturally to most of us we have to learn to praise the very first reason i believe why we find it difficult is because we are just not accustomed to praising others leave alone god the second reason is that praise requires us to set ourselves aside and keep and think of god first after all it is because of him and for him we live and the third reason is that in order to start praising we need to change our pattern of life we must take time to focus on god and his attributes therefore praising the lord is not some kind of casual meaningless activity now what can praising god do to you praising god has the power to change our lives praise takes our mind off our own selves and helps us see who god is it transforms the perspective from which we approach life and places us in the context of who god is praise helps us recognize god and his ability to impact our lives and reminds us that he loves us and is deeply involved in every detail of our daily living and here is something that can stir you up to praise him more psalm 67 3 5 6 says let the people praise thee o god let all the people praise thee then shall the earth yield her increase and god even our own god shall bless us note the word then in vs 6 most times we want god to bless us then we would think of possibly praising him but see what vs 6 says then in other words you start praising him first in faith even before you ve received anything and then see him pour out his blessings because god dwells in the midst of praise psalm 22 3 so i pray that this small but powerful book raise your praise all 365 days will help you do just that you will find 366 bible verses exclusively on praising god one for every day of the year including one for a leap year you could use it as an everyday tool by reading that day s verse and reflecting on god s goodness greatness glory grace and his gifts that he has blessed you with and all that you see around you or you could just decide to use it completing all the 366 verses at one go i pray that this will be a blessing to you in your times of private worship
