art in research and applications of foundation models and is intended for readers familiar with basic natural language processing nlp concepts over the recent years a revolutionary new paradigm has been developed for training models for nlp these models are first pre trained on large collections of text documents to acquire general syntactic knowledge and semantic information then they are fine tuned for specific tasks which they can often solve with superhuman accuracy when the models are large enough they can be instructed by prompts to solve new tasks without any fine tuning moreover they can be applied to a wide range of different media and problem domains ranging from image and video processing to robot control learning because they provide a blueprint for solving many tasks in artificial intelligence they have been called foundation models after a brief introduction to basic nlp models the main pre trained language models bert gpt and sequence to sequence transformer are described as well as the concepts of self attention and context sensitive embedding then different approaches to improving these models are discussed such as expanding the pre training criteria increasing the length of input texts or including extra knowledge an overview of the best performing models for about twenty application areas is then presented e g question answering translation story generation dialog systems generating images from text etc for each application area the strengths and weaknesses of current models are discussed and an outlook on further developments is given in addition links are provided to freely available program code a concluding chapter summarizes the economic opportunities mitigation of risks and potential developments of ai

this book traces the development of john hejduk s architectural career using the idea of exorcism to uncover his thought process when examining architectural designs his work encouraged profound questioning on what why and how we build which allowed for more open discourse and enhance the phenomenology found in architectural experiences three distinct eras in his architectural career are applied to analogies of outlines apparitions and angels throughout the book across seven chapters using these thematic examples the author investigates the progression of thought and depth inside the architect's imagination by studying key projects such as the Texas Houses, Wall House, Architectural Masques and his final works featuring comments by Gloria Fiorentino, Hejduk, Stanley Tigerman, Steven Holl, Zaha Hadid, Charles Jencks, Phyllis Lambert, Juhani Pallasmaa, Toshiko Mori and others. This book brings to life the intricacies in the mind of John Hejduk and would be beneficial for those interested in architecture and design in the 20th century.

When Lori Dewson isn't seeking ancient mysteries to solve, they come looking for her. This time it's in the form of a mask illegally looted out of New Mexico's soil. Could it be the Hopi ceremonial mask of the Blue Star Kachina or that of a prophetic priest with Toltec origins? Anthropologist Anthony Peet is already neck-deep into the case, but there are others who have their own agendas for the artifact, which could mark the end for Lori and Peet. The world relic daringly collides the Mesoamerican cosmologies first introduced in Theresa Danley's archaeological thrillers, Effigy and Deity, with the mythological and archaeological mysteries of the American Southwest.

Ekphrasis, the description of pictorial art in words, is the subject of this bibliography. More specifically, some 2500 poems on paintings are catalogued by type of publication in which they appear, and by poet. Also included are 2000 entries on the secondary literature of ekphrasis, including works on sculpture, music, photography, film, and mixed media.

The Spirit Flyer, a rusty old bicycle found in the city dump, surprises its new owner John Kramar when it magically lives up to its name, introducing John to an unknown world and changing his life for good.

John Gonzalez is a South Kingstown, Rhode Island resident of Taíno descent whose ceremonial name Kanipawit Maskwa (Standing Bear) was given to him during the final days of the Standing Rock occupation in North Dakota, where over 500 tribal nations and their allies prayerfully came together and stood against a militarized corporation, a water protector who spent three months on the front lines john worked with leadership to help evacuees and those who remained during the worst blizzard in north dakota history as well as prayerfully engaging in nonviolent direct action against dapl

the magical publishing pen is published by mary celeste press the collected stories of m stefan strozier vary widely in theme and yet the protagonist is always a male of a certain age as arranged here the stories represent a chronological arc of a man s life from boyhood to adulthood stylistically the stories show an arc too as a story about a young man was written when the author was a young man and a story about an older man was written when the author was older for example magical realism framed stories humor satire action different points of view and crisp dialog pervade the stories this collection is a portrait of an artist as a young to mid aged man
