presents the correspondence of thomas and heinrich mann the papers include personal and business correspondence manuscripts and published articles and personal documents and photographs and pencil drawings dating from heinrich mann s years in france 1933 1940 and los angeles 1940 1950 studies the political and artistic rivalry and emotional closeness of thomas and heinrich mann analyzing the cultural social and familial milieu in which the brothers developed and worked this book studies the relationship between german novelist heinrich mann and his readers the author traces mann s development by examining the interaction of his upbringing his artistic perception and the attitudes of the reading public against the background of the social and political upheaval in the early 1900s few writers have engaged themselves so actively politically as heinrich mann an investigation of the whole complex of art and politics in his life and work is beyond the scope of a single study the present study examines heinrich mann s work in terms of his response to his situation and the age this is only one aspect but none the less perhaps the most crucial because it necessarily involves the central problem of heinrich mann s work its artistic unevenness which makes appreciation and evaluation so difficult the dialectic of artistic consciousness and political conscience is thus the determining reference of this study

thomas mann is among the greatest of german prose writers and was the first german novelist to reach a wide english speaking readership since goethe novels such as buddenbrooks the magic mountain and doktor faustus attest to his mastery of subtle distanced irony while novellas such as death in venice reveal him at the height of his mastery of language in addition to fresh insights about these best known works of mann this volume treats less often discussed works such as joseph and his brothers lotte in weimar and felix krull as well as his political writings and essays mann himself was a paradox his role as family father was both refuge and façade his love of germany was matched by his contempt for its having embraced hitler while in exile during the nazi period he functioned as the prime representative of the good Germany in the fight against fascism and he has often been remembered this way in English speaking lands but a new view of Mann is emerging half a century after his death a view of him as one of the great writers of a modernity understood as extending into our 21st century this volume provides sixteen essays by American and European specialists they demonstrate the relevance of his writings for our time making particular use of the biographical material that is now available contributors Ehrhard Bahr Manfred Dierks Werner Fritzen Clayton Koelb Helmut Koopmann Wolfgang Lederer Hannelore Mundt Peter Pütz Jens Rieckmann Hans Joachim Sandberg Egon Schwarz and Hans Vaget Herbert Lehnert is research professor and Eva Wessell is lecturer in humanities both at the University of California Irvine

Inhaltsangabe abstract in the beginning of the 20th century numerous changes in the social economic and political level flow together in the ambivalent spirit of end time and break up different trends of literature are unfolded for the young Heinrich Mann these processes continue in his early work as a writer and qualify for interpretation and the hope to overcome the fin de siècle trend the selected novels of this work Im Schlaraffenland ein Roman unter feinen Leuten 1900 Professor Unrat oder das Ende eines Tyrannen 1904 and Die kleine Stadt 1909 represent the development of this intention at first they appear as a satirical criticism of the society and later in the second half of the decade as a draft for a democratic society in the following the former novels Im Schlaraffenland and Professor Unrat are mentioned without subheading this work shall point out the very development phase of Heinrich Mann between 1900 and 1909 until the beginning of his political writing as a result of biographical and literary effects he takes up a special position and shows a change in his early work his critical and satirical examination of the society associated with a special style of speech open out in a preachy democratic ideal of the society after the turning year 1905 on the one hand these positions make the career of the man of letters difficult in the German nationalistic empire on the other hand they make him to become a precursor of a vanguard readership before the philosophical influence of Friedrich Nietzsche and the literary effect of predominantly French origin on Heinrich Mann will be dwelled on this work will give a short overview of the literary understanding after this the three mentioned novels will be discussed in the chapters 2 3 and 4 and will be correlated it will become apparent that there is a strong breach of Heinrich Mann in his satires and his democratic utopia after the year 1905 Heinrich Mann changes his mind back to the time of reconnaissance Jean Jacques Rousseau's ideal of the society and the trilogy imagination of liberty equality and brotherliness of the French revolution of 1789 his guiding themes of power and spirit the dualism of the society and the individual and the problems of the artist are therefore at the figure of change in the first decade of the 20th century a succinct introduction to the life and works of thomas mann addressing both his literary texts and his personal life scintillating and rather magical house of exile is an extraordinary book and a really rare accomplishment michael hoffman the times literary supplement in 1933 the author and political activist heinrich mann and his partner nelly kroeger fled nazi germany finding refuge first in the south of france and later in great despair in los angeles where nelly committed suicide in 1944 and heinrich died in 1950 born into a wealthy middle class family in lübeck heinrich was one of the leading representatives of weimar culture nelly was twenty seven years younger the adopted daughter of a fisherman and a hostess in a berlin bar as far as heinrich's family was concerned she was from the wrong side of the tracks in house of exile heinrich and nelly's story is crossed with others from their circle of friends relatives and contemporaries heinrich's brother thomas mann his sister carla their friends bertolt brecht alfred döblin and joseph roth and beyond them the writers james joyce franz kafka and virginia woolf among others evelyn juers brings this generation of exiles to life with tremendous poignancy and imaginative power in train compartments ship cabins and rented rooms the manns clung to what was left to them their bodies their minds and their books in a turbulent and self destructive era second the scores of essays and lectures that mann composed during the joseph years 1926 1943 interweave with the mammoth tetralogy in complex ways containing entries on over four hundred authors of fiction poetry and drama from germany austria and switzerland this invaluable work of reference presents material of a range and depth that no other book on the subject in english attains for the second edition the entries have been updated to include the most recent works of german literature a number of new entries have been added dealing in particular with the east german literary scene and the changing literary landscape after reunification in addition to basic biographical facts the companion offers summaries information on involvement in literary groups and political developments schools and movements critical terms and aspects of the other arts including film evelyn juers extraordinary book is a unique imagining of the unconventional love affair between the writer and political activist heinrich mann and nelly kroeger a tall blonde ex barmaid twenty seven years his junior recounting their flight from nazi germany in 1933 to france and then to los angeles in house of exile their story is intricately interwoven with others from their circle of friends relatives and literary contemporaries thomas mann bertolt brecht james joyce franz kafka and virginia woolf among others it gives us a poignant glimpse of a generation of remarkable writers who were determined to carry on living reading and working in wartime in ship s cabins train compartments and shabby rented rooms even though it seemed the civilized world was coming to an end this is a unique portrayal of the strange dislocated existence of the émigré and how lives are connected and defined by writing evelyn juers enlarges the boundaries of biography to provide an intimate sensitively imagined view of an extraordinary time in history

t j reed s study has long established itself as the standard work in english on thomas mann and offers as comprehensive a view of mann s fiction and thought as is available in any language it is based on a coherent close reading of mann s oeuvre literary and political and also on manuscripts and sources and was part of the first phase of literary scholarship that opened up the resources of the zurich thomas mann archive further documents that have appeared since then mann s diaries notebooks and other correspondences have not fundamentally altered the individual interpretations or the overall picture the study offers and in some respects have emphatically confirmed them a further chapter added to this edition covers the new documentation gives a vigorous account of the main currents in mann scholarship and criticism over the last two decades suggesting how we should now see the writer the man and the political figure and above all the complex relationship between the three traces literary developments in the german speaking countries from 1900 to the present this study of german literature in the past hundred years sets its subject clearly in the artistic and political context of developments in western europe during the century it begins with the turn of the century aestheticism and visions of decay led by schnitzler hofmannsthal and other austrian writers and the quite different explosion of new artistic energy in the expressionist and dada movements these movements are succeeded by the rise of modernism culminating in the inter war years the poetry of rilke brecht s epic theatre and novels by thomas mann kafka hesse musil doblin and broch the influence of nazism on literary production is considered the study of developments after 1945 reflects the struggle to establish a post holocaust literature and to deal with the questions posed by the political division of germany finally the convergence of east and west german literature after unification is addressed ingo r stoehr teaches literature at kilgore college texas and is editor of the bilingual journal of german literature in english translation dimension2 this study explores the reappearance of gnostic themes across the landscape of european literature and thought and in major works by thomas mann
